Appoints Wayne Barr, Jr. as Interim Chief Executive Officer

New York, New York – June 11, 2020 – HC2 Holdings, Inc. (“HC2” or the “Company”) (NYSE: HCHC), a diversified holding company, announced today its Board of Directors has appointed Wayne Barr, Jr. as interim Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Barr succeeds Philip A. Falcone, effective immediately.

The Board of Directors intends to commence a search for a permanent CEO and has formed a search committee comprised of Chairman Avie Glazer, and directors Warren Gfeller and Michael Gorzynski.

“After a thorough review, the new HC2 Board has determined that the best course of action is to appoint Wayne as interim CEO while we embark on a search for a permanent successor,” said Mr. Glazer, Chairman of the Board of Directors of HC2. “With Wayne’s extensive financial and strategic experience, his familiarity with HC2 since its inception, along with the incumbent HC2 team that has been effectively executing on transforming our business, we are confident that he will skillfully guide HC2 through this next phase and create value for our stockholders.”

“At the same time, we also want to thank Phil for his contributions to HC2,” added Mr. Glazer. “Phil helped build HC2 over the past six years, acquiring undervalued assets and growing them under the HC2 umbrella. He has set the stage for HC2 to succeed in its next chapter. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors.”

Mr. Barr will continue to serve on the recently created Executive Committee of the Board, comprised of Chairman Avie Glazer, Michael Gorzynski and Mr. Barr, while Shelly Lombard will replace Mr. Barr on the Compensation Committee, effective immediately.

Mr. Barr has served as a director of HC2 since January 2014, as well as serving as a director of certain HC2 subsidiaries. Since March 2019, Mr. Barr has been President and CEO of CCUR Holdings, Inc.
